Attending the meeting was Mark, Norman, Jose, Gary, Darin, Kyle, Lee D. and Don.

Secretary Report

Mark Stein read the minutes from the meeting on 12/12/12. Motion to approve minutes made by Darin and seconded by Jose.

Treasurer Report

Rick was absent, no report.

Membership Report

Gary had nothing to report at this time.

Old Business

Discussion took place on gun show advertising. Talk took place on holding the show in April. It was thought that either having it during Shiverfest or in April would be best. Lee D. talked about how he has handed out flyers at other gun shows in the past. Discussion took place on when the Williston show will be and if we will have enough dealers at our show. For show security it is thought that Dan will be offering services again.

Doug was not here to report on clays.

New Business.

Air rifle for 4H kids started last Thursday, the class is full. Discussion took place on the need for more air rifles. Norm made a motion to order more air rifles at $150 each for beginners, motion was seconded by Darin. It was asked if they have warranty, Norm didn't think they do.

Darin said he thinks the Randy Meyers memorial shoot will be scheduled for June 9th this year. He will know for sure this weekend.

Don said he wants the Hunters Education shooting (family shoot) scheduled for the 3rd week in June. This will be for handguns, shotgun and archery.

Kyle said that March 19th is the date set for Pheasants Forever banquet. Darin stated that the local Pheasants Forever will help with youth shooting activities. At the national level they will donate money to the youth. Darin is going to ask Bill to help with donations for the rest of the cost to take kids to Minneapolis for national activities.

Jose said he can bring a camera and printer to help with concealed weapon classes.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:45 PM.
