Treasurer Report

Rick reported we are in good shape. Rick said we ordered more Air Rifles. Motion to approve report made by Kyle and seconded by Jose

Membership Report

Gary had nothing to report at this time.

Old Business

The gun show had 21 tables sold and dropped to 17. With only 17 tables we cannot have the show. Discussion took place on why we had low interest from dealers. Rick said he was told dealers are low on merchandise. Darin made a motion not to hold a gun show this year and seconded by Kyle. Further discussion took place on setting a date for next year. It was decided to hold next year's gun show on the 15th and 16th of February, 2014.

Norm stated that Doug called the company we order clays from. Discussion took place on if we pay taxes or file for tax exempt. Rick and Doug will place the order.

Rick discussed reorganizing our club as a 501c7 classification. If we do we will be tax exempt. If we do we will have to re-write our bylaws and will need a board of directors. Rick will have information ready by the next meeting.

Darin said he did not go to the Pheasants forever in Minneapolis this year.

A motion was made for the club to purchase a printer, paper and camera from Jose for Concealed Weapons classes for $80. The club charges $5 for pictures at the time of the classes. Motion was made by Gary and seconded by Rick to purchase the items for $80.

New Business.

Darin said the date for the 5 stand shotgun shoot is set for April 21st. The Randy Meyers shotgun shoot is set for June 9th (50/50/50).

Rick said there is a 4H Air Rifle match set for March 16th.

Rick had a Hunter's Safety shoot (.22) at the indoor range last Sunday. All went well.

Kyle asked if the club would support the Pheasants forever cards. Motion was made by Darin and seconded by Mark.

Kyle asked if we need anything for "Get Hooked"? We need shooting glasses and hearing protection. Kyle will find out date and number of kids attending.

Rick said the ROTC from Devils Lake and Fargo will need the indoor range for a shooting competition. They can't use the Camp Grafton range so Rick volunteered to help with a 3 position air rifle competition. Motion made to approve made by Darin and seconded by Jose.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 PM.
